

Free Your Mind

Let the weak say, "I am strong." Joel 3:10

Stay solution oriented and always do the right thing.

Don't sell out or give up! Honor yourself as the being that you are and understand that you are a part of this great process. When the "stall" in progress gets in your way and your dream "hits the wall" trust the process and be grateful for the steps forward that you have accomplished!

When the dream seems to have arrested and come to a screeching halt remember to "see" it with your imagination. You won't find it with your physical eyes because the dream has gone into the supernatural! If you use your logic and attempt to find the dream in your mind then the lack of evidence you find will convince you that it doesn't exist and that it is never going to come to pass. Just trust the process. Stay focused on the supernatural with your imagination and bathe in the intense emotions that come from enjoying it.

Relax and enjoy life. Celebrate and know for a fact that your dream is on its way!

WHAT YOU DESIRE IS ALREADY YOURS!

You must maintain the awareness that anything you need is ALREADY yours and that the only thing keeping it from manifestation is your thinking. No person, situation, or circumstance can stop you from having ANYTHING that you desire. The only thing that can stop your desire is your own restrictive thought.
